TRADING NAME CHANGE

To all valued Customers / Suppliers of National Freight Express Pty Ltd, As of the 1st July 2011 we will be changing our trading name to Coolfreight Pty Ltd. To make this transition smooth we would like you to pass this information on to all applicable staff within your business, and complete the relevant attached Supplier or Customer Forms.

What this means for your business ? Aside for the administration changes, you will not notice any difference, we will continue providing the same outstanding service with the same staff and key people as we have done for over 10 years as National Freight Express. We will still endeavour to improve where ever we can to make sure the service we provide is still the best option for your freight needs in the regions we operate.

Any questions your staff may have relating to this can be directed to our office or Larry / Marcus directly and will be answered immediately.
